THE CLOSING AGENT EXPANDS SERVICES TO 40 STATES

ORLANDO, FL, JUNE 9TH, 2009: The Closing Agent, Inc., one of central Florida's oldest independent title and escrow companies, announced an expansion of closing services to 40 states. The Closing Agent will now service their clients throughout most of the United States with this expanded service. "In order to be competitive in this challenging market we now offer our customers the world class service that they have received in Florida to most of the United States" said Barry L. Miller, President of The Closing Agent.

The new service provides lenders with a title commitment in 48 hours in all of the states and the consumer can close on their loan immediately. The Closing Agent offers the consumer a closer that will come to their home to conduct the closing or the closing can occur by overnight mail.

The Closing Agent has already started the expansion and has processed and closed loans in Missouri and Tennessee this month. The 16 year old company services lenders locally, regionally and nationally so that they are a one stop shop for title services. "As local and regional lenders look to expand to other markets, we will be there to assist and meet their needs," Miller said.

The Closing Agent is an innovator in the title industry being one of the first title agencies to use e-closings with cooperating lenders. The company was also one of the first to utilize electronic recording when it was made available by the Orange County Comptroller.

The Closing Agent was founded by attorney Barry L. Miller and has offices in Orlando, Lake Mary and Windermere. In addition to practicing in Florida, Miller is also a member of the Massachusetts and New York Bar Associations. He is the past President of the Orlando International Fringe Theater Festival and is currently serving on the Board of Directors of the Orlando Shakespeare Theater.
